

Nick Summerville Aug 1, 1970 - Sept 4, 2009

Nick Summerville was born Aug 1, 1970, in Frankfort, Kentucky. During his childhood, his family moved frequently, as military families often do. Nick fell in love with the Pacific Northwest, and once he graduated high school, he decided to stay in the Northwest, rather than return to his family's roots in Tennessee. In 1989, Nick met Jason Bennett and Kevin Henneigh and successfully auditioned for their band. Over the next 20 years, Nick played in many bands at hundreds of locations throughout the West and Midwest. He showed incredible passion and dedication to his music, while also working and raising his three children. Nick was a devoted, loving father. His children were his world.

Nick Summerville passed away Sept. 4, 2009, he left behind: Randy (father), Teresa (mother), Owen (sister), Cole (son, 10), Carmel (daughter, 10), and Cameron (son, 3). Nick will be remembered and missed by all who knew him. The love you, Nick.

myspace.com/medicinemetal

Nick Summerville

Aug 1, 1970 - Sept 4, 2009

Jokers Wild 1, Going for You 2, Medicine String, Quick Fix 3, Another Lonely Night 4, Edge of the World 5, Mr. Grinch 6, Apple Before Christ 6, opinions, 7, Carol sin Delta 9, O. D. Bed, 9, Break U.P.T., 10, Death, 11, Fresh 50, Lashes 12, Just Another Word, Medicine Wheel 13, Crow, 14, Important